

Net Zero Pledge

Medical Access has embarked on their journey towards achieving Net Zero emissions.

This demonstrates a commitment to sustainability through the production of a comprehensive carbon report, detailing their current emissions footprint and outlining a strategic plan to reduce greenhouse gas emissions and achieve Net Zero.

By partnering with Greenarc, Medical Access is taking significant steps to mitigate climate change and contribute to a more sustainable future.

Nick Studdart - Director

Charlotte Bingham - Client Sustainability Manager

